

As a long time user - and fan - of satellite radio, I find the NAB's petition to prevent XM from providing instant traffic and weather completely unconscionable. It is a blatant attempt to limit or stifle competition, and should be rejected out-of-hand by the FCC.

Thomas Henkel